Outdoor Events

Welcome to Floors Castle

Built by leading architect William Adam in 1721, Floors Castle is Scotland's largest inhabited Castle and home to the 10th Duke of Roxburghe. The River Tweed and Cheviot Hills sit at the heart of the 50,000-acre estate.

The beautiful grounds surrounding the Castle provide the most idyllic setting for outdoor events. Located at Kelso in the Scottish Borders, approximately one hour away from Edinburgh and Newcastle. The site regularly hosts major events and recent events held here include the BBC Antiques Road Show, Floors International Horse Trials and the renowned annual Massed Pipe Band Day.
